Meetings

12 rooms, flexible layouts

From a full plenary session to a small group meeting.

Spaces that work together

Méditerranée seats up to 300 people, with rooms of various sizes for conferences, training and workshops. Choose the combination that suits your programme. On-site meals and accommodation keep conversations going between sessions.

Equipment to suit you

Wi-Fi and presentation facilities support your meetings, with a touchscreen or projector depending on the room. Tell us your microphone, sound system, flipchart and furniture requirements so we can agree on the setup and services.

Prepare the right setup

Numbers, note-taking, projection, circulation or privacy: share your needs when planning. The agreed furniture and equipment are specified in the quotation.

Meetings

outdoors

The pine grove, the estate, your event

A lively setting by the sea, flexible spaces, a gathering tailored to you.

Space + experience + responsiveness = flexibility

In the pine grove, the estate becomes an extension of your meeting rooms. Change the setting, run a workshop or bring everyone together: our team will plan the setup with you.

A different setting outdoors Still together

A few chairs, a table to work at or a more structured setup to suit the group and the occasion.

At a glance

Flexible arrangements, planned with our team. The location, furniture and weather options depend on your programme, availability and the conditions on the day.

An event tailored to you

Pine grove, estate and, depending on your plans, beach: create working and social sessions to suit your group.

Flexible setups

Marquee, overhead canopies, tables and chairs: plan a sheltered or open-air layout to suit the location and purpose. Agree on equipment and setup conditions with our team.

3 hectares available for private hire

for evening events, meals, shows and celebrations...

Plan for the weather

Flexibility starts with planning: adjusted timings, suitable setups or a move to an available room. Together, we explore bad-weather options that keep your gathering on track.

Why not the beach?

For a session by the water, discuss the options with our team. The format, access and arrangements depend on your plans, the weather and any permits required.
